

Friday 10th May 2024

Welcome back to your Family Group. 😊

How are you?

Who is this?

Learning Objectives:

To know that International Nurses Day is on 12th May.

To know why Florence Nightingale is important.

To reflect on what being a hero means.

To look at ways to develop our listening skills.

To think about ways in which we can be the best that we can be and make a difference.

We are a Gold Rights Respecting School!

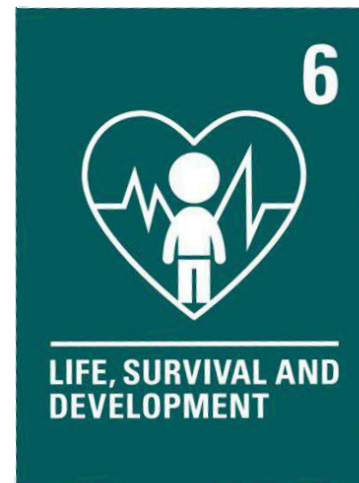

CRC Article 6:

All children have the right to life.

CRC Article 24:

All children have the right to the best possible health.

We all have the right to be alive and survive and develop in the best way possible. There are many people who can help us do this, including those who work for the NHS.

Article 29: The right to be the best that you can be.

The Timothy Hackworth Child

is an independent learner and decision maker

is morally, spiritually and culturally aware has high expectations of themselves by endeavouring to be the best that they can be behaves responsibly online and knows how to stay safe

co-operates and works as part of a team

knows how to be physically and mentally healthy has a sense of well being and can lead a safe, fulfilling life is adaptable and creative demonstrates kindness, integrity, generosity and honesty

knows how to develop and value positive relationships is tolerant, respectful and treats everyone equally is prepared for life in Modern Britain and is able to contribute is adventurous, resilient and has a positive growth mindset knows and respects their rights and the rights of others

is a confident, enthusiastic reader, creative writer and has the ability to apply Maths skills to everyday life

Let's watch the video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Frow559jWSE&t=11s>

Florence Nightingale (1820-1910) “The Lady with the Lamp”

Discussion:

Which words would you use to describe the following? Why?

Which do you think describe a fictional hero and which describe a real-life hero? Can any be used to describe both?

Shows kindness.

Has a secret identity.

Always has a powerful enemy or villain to conquer.

Puts other people before themselves.

FICTIONAL HEROES

Has a costume.

REAL-LIFE HEROES

Is courageous.

Has a Superpower.

Stands for good and what is the right thing to do.

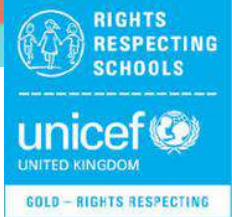

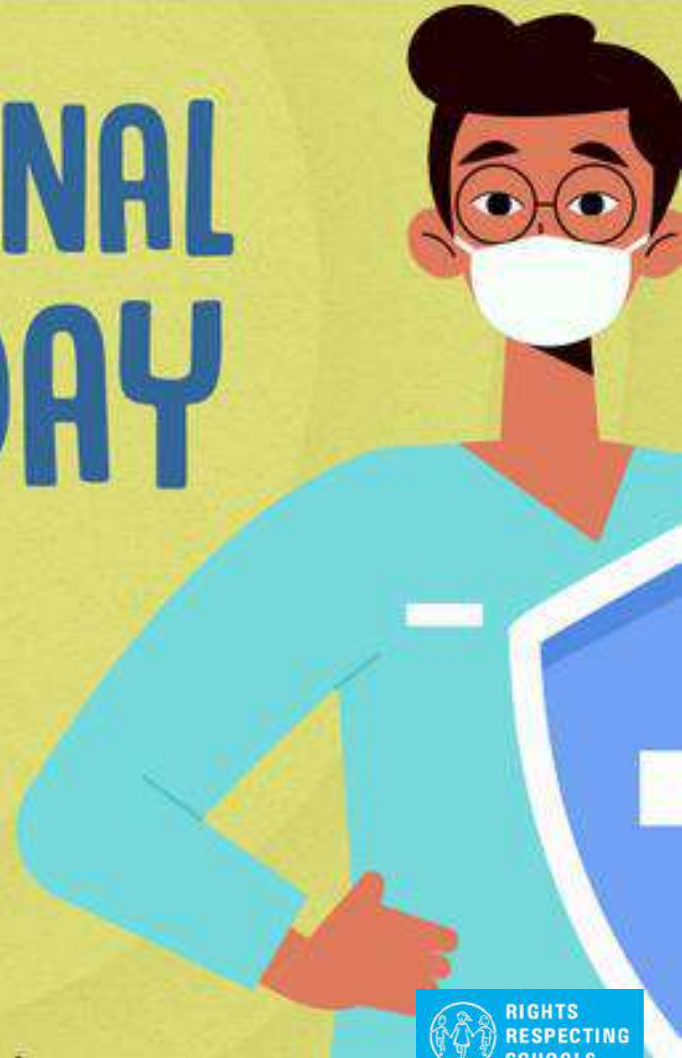

Makes the world a better place.

Saves people.

What similarities and differences do real-life and fictional heroes have?
Does everyone agree?

MAY 12TH

INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY

Our Culture of Compassionate Care

1. Care
2. Compassion
3. Competence
4. Communication
5. Courage
6. Commitment

Care

- Nurses demonstrate that they care for their patients. They want to help their patients' health and wellbeing.

Compassion

- Nurses show kindness, empathy, respect and dignity for their patients. They conduct their duties with a compassion for the people in their care.

Courage

- Nurses have the courage that enables them to do the right thing for the people they care for. That might mean speaking up when they have concerns.

Communication

- Nurses communicate clearly. That includes active listening to patients, as well as giving clear information about their care.

Commitment

- Nurses are committed to improving techniques and ways of working to ensure the best outcomes for patients. They strive to be the best nurse they can be.

Competence

- Nurses undertake continual training to ensure they have the necessary ability, knowledge and skills to perform their role safely and effectively.

British Values

Mutual Respect

Our behaviour, actions and words affect others. We all have the power to change people's lives for the better. We can all be heroes!

Individual Liberty

I am responsible for my actions. It is important to remember they can have an impact on people, places and things. We can choose actions that can help both ourselves and others.

Reflection

Understanding the consequences of behaviour and actions.

Sometimes nurses vote to strike to demonstrate their care, commitment and courage.

How do you show courage?

Reflection

Respect and attitudes towards different religious, ethnic and socio-economic groups in the local, national and global communities.

Describe what a hero is to you.
Is it their character,
the job they do, their actions or behaviour that makes them a hero?

Which of the 17 Global Goals have we focused on today?

Which of the 17 Global Goals have we focused on today?

Reading recommendations linked to our Family Group ... 😊

