Road Safety Week is the UK's biggest road safety event and it happens every year. It involves everyone who helps make journeys safer and healthier or helps care for someone after a crash is a road safety hero.

BEA ROAD SAFETY HERO

After the crash Road Safety Week
Every road victim counts

Organised by Brake
the road safety charity

Sponsored by AUTOGLASS

We're taking part in Road Safety Week to support every road victim family

Every year, more than 1,700 people die on UK roads.
Another 30,000 suffer serious, life-changing injuries.

But road casualties are not just statistics.
Behind every number is a family whose lives have been changed forever in an instant.

After the crash, every road victim counts

Individual Liberty

I am responsible for my actions. It is important to remember they can have an impact on people, places and things. We can choose actions that can help and protect others.

Reflection

Understanding the consequences of behaviour and actions.

What are the consequences of not taking any action?

Reflection

Respect and attitudes towards different religious, ethnic and socio-economic groups in the local, national and global communities.

Should all countries around the world work together to protect the global status of road safety?

Dear _____ [name of grown up/s]

Please help to keep me safe near roads.

1. Always hold my hand when we walk near roads and cross roads at safe places
2. Help me ride my bike on safe paths away from traffic
3. Make sure I always sit in my special car seat when we travel by car
4. Drive at safe speeds and never using a phone while driving.

Thank you for being my Road Safety Hero!

Love from _____ [name of child]
