The NSPCC work extremely hard to protect children and young adults everyday. Their cases in Online Safety are on the rise.

Why do you think this is?

Can you remember which rights we are focussing on this week?

Let's celebrate!

Hanni and the Magic Window

Hanni and the Magic Window
(4:39 mins)

NSPCC

Let's talk about Hanni's story:

Hanni's magic window is a lot like the technology we might have at home.

What wonderful things can you see or do using technology?

Hanni is upset by something she sees in the magic window. How can we tell?

Hanni doesn't want to talk to anybody about what she has seen. Why might that be?

What does Mrs Rodwell do to help Hanni?

What is Mum's special way of making Hanni feel better?

Who could you tell if you were feeling upset or worried?

Want to talk about it?

Wait a minute, why would I want to talk with someone about what I see and do online?

Because talking and communicating about anything can help in lots of ways!

It's a way to connect and bond with other people

It's fun!

It's a chance to learn new things and ask questions

You can get help when things go wrong

It's a way to share information and ideas
