Everyone at Timothy Hackworth Primary had a wonderful time celebrating World Book Day this year on Thursday 6th March.

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, we invited children and staff to come to school wearing some warm and cosy pyjamas! It's a good job we were all wearing pyjamas, as we curled up with a book and drank some hot chocolate with marshmallows at the end of the day - our very own school special 'bedtime story!'

As well as enjoying lots of books, stories and poems throughout the day, pupils also took part in a range of activities which included the following:

- Some classes took part in the World Book Day Live lesson;
- Writing stories about Timothy Tiger;
- National Book Token competition;
- The Masked Reader Quiz;
- A Where's Wally trail around school;
- Golden Ticket Awards;
- LOTS of READING;
- And a special visit from the one and only, Timothy Tiger.

This year, as our whole school World Book Day school competition, children had the opportunity to enter the 'mashive' potato character design challenge. Children had to take the humble potato and choose a character from a book and mash them together. Here are some of our awesome designs:
